

Supporters

Anyone over the age of 10 years, including non-beekeepers, who is interested in our work, is welcomed to become a supporter of Lune Valley Community Beekeepers. However as part of our safeguarding policy, members under the age of 16 years will need to be accompanied at meetings by a responsible adult.

Becoming a supporter entitles you to:

- attend all closed courses, workshops and other meetings and attend open courses at a reduced fee.
- visit the Club apiary and wildflower meadow throughout the season
- receive the Club's monthly newsletter
- participate in the Club's public liability scheme.

Our supporter year runs from 1st March to 28th February.

Subscriptions should be paid by 28 February.

We only have one class of supporter and the subscription for 2017-2018 is £10.

If you can, please make your payment by BACS using your own internet or telephone banking facilities. In this case please indicate that you have done this and email your completed form back to info@lunevalleybeekeepers.co.uk.

If you are unable to pay by BACS, please post your completed application form together with your remittance to LVCB, High Tarn, Aughton, Lancaster, LA2 8LU.

Data Protection

The organisation's membership records are stored securely and are kept solely for administration purposes. No information about members will be disclosed to persons outside the Company's membership without their specific permission. We request all members who keep bees to grant us permission to inform BeeBase (the national register maintained by the National Bee Unit for the purposes of disease control) of their names and addresses.
